

These Schools Are Your Schools, These Schools Are My Schools

(To Woody Guthrie's This Land is Your Land)

Lyrics written by Shippensburg parents in 2011

These schools are your schools, these schools
are my schools,
From Chester-Upland, to Juniata
From Duquesne City, to Allentown,
These schools were made for you and me.

As I was sitting, just readin' my history,
I was a'pondring, a powerful mystery,
Why not fund education—the heart of democracy?
These schools were made for you and me.

These schools are your schools, these schools
are my schools,
From Greater Johnstown, to Reading City,
From Upper Darby, to Shippensburg,
These schools were made for you and me.

Across the state there, are children yearning,
For an opportunity, to grow through learning,
That light of the future, we must keep burning,
These schools were made for you and me.

These schools are your schools, these schools
are my schools,
From Steelton-Highspire, to Panther Valley,

From Carbondale, to Aliquippa,
These schools were made for you and me.

Our state legislature, thinks no one's watching,
As they neglect our, public school funding,
We need to show them, we won't stop fighting,
These schools were made for you and me.

These schools are your schools, these schools
are my schools,
From Pittsburgh City, to Fannett-Metal,
From Central Dauphin, to Harrisburg,
These schools were made for you and me.

No politician can ever stop us,
As we seek knowledge and strive for justice,
We have the power we have the courage,
'Cause these schools were made for you and me.

These schools are your schools, these schools
are my schools,
From Laurel Highlands, to Oil City,
From Blacklick Valley, to Philadelphia,
These schools were made for you and me.
